How to Properly Flash a Frame Deck to a Log Wall

Custom bent metal flashing cut into at an angle to allow water to flow away.

First piece of decking. Try not to screw thru flashing.

This space is exaggerated for clarity of the drawing.

Joist

Screw rim joist to bottom plate or log.

Rim joist

This area behind the rim should be freshly stained and then apply ice and water shield from cut into logs all the way down onto sill plate.